There were 6 forms. There were no meaningful differences in the average scores between forms. On this test, these are approximate breakdowns since discussions of exact grades are meaningless at this time:

41-45 "A" grade   there were 37
36-40 "B" grade   there were 28
30-36 "C" grade   there were 22
below 30 is not passing at this time,
If you scored lower than a 25, you need to consider dropping the course.

There were 4 perfect exams 45/45. If you plan to contest your examination grade, please read the instructions found in the syllabus. You have until 5pm on April 26, 2002 to submit a challenge in writing. E-mail is considered "in writing". Please remember that responses on your answer sheet, which I keep, are considered the final answers for a problem. If there are differences between what you marked on your exam and what you submitted on the answer sheet, it is understood to be your mistake, not ours.
